

SLOWER TO ENLIST

Young Men Turning Back Upon the Army Under New Service Plan.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Although complete figures for an extended period are not yet available, preliminary tables compiled at the office of the adjutant general of the army indicate a considerable falling off in enlistments and re-enlistments of recruits under the new law which lengthens the term of service. Under the present law troops are enlisted for seven years, of which four are to be spent with the colors and the remaining three years in reserve.

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, who favors the establishment of an army reserve by requiring a brief period of service with the colors, to be followed by the transfer of enlisted men to the reserve, points out that the large average shortage of 6,353, or 7.8 per cent., in the enlisted strength of the army indicates very clearly the difficulty which has been experienced in finding suitable recruits even under the three year period of enlistment which was in force to November 1 last.

"The effect of the lengthened period cannot as yet be foreseen," says Gen. Wood, "but that it will not make recruiting easier is evident."

Complete reports from recruit depots and depot posts for the first month under the new law show enlistments and re-enlistments to have been 1,267, a falling off of 1,629 as compared with November, 1911. The total number for October, 1912, was 1,698. These comparisons show a falling off of about 56 per cent. for November, 1912, as compared with November, 1911, and about 25 per cent. for November, 1912, as compared with October, 1912.

COMMITTEE UP AGAINST IT

National Banks Refuse to Disclose Names of Individual Borrowers

Washington, Jan. 17.—Hearings of the house money trust committee will be suspended next week Friday or Saturday, according to an announcement by Representative Pujo, chairman of the committee, who assigned as the principal reason for the suspension, the doubt cast upon the power of the committee to inquire into the internal affairs of banking institutions.

"This action," said Representative Pujo in a statement explaining the announcement, "is due mainly to the doubt cast by the banks upon power of the committee to inquire into their internal affairs and especially to their refusal to disclose the names of individual loans and borrowers of upwards of $1,000,000 which would affect only thirteen institutions in the United States."

"Without this formation and in the absence of means of ascertaining the character of the business done by the banks that have made huge profits in a comparatively short time, it is manifestly impossible for the committee to ascertain whether, and if so, to what extent, these banks and their funds have been and are being used by the great financial interests in the furtherance of their schemes or to the exclusion of competing business."

Chairman Pujo pointed out that there are still upwards of forty witnesses on the committee's list who have not yet been examined and many important subjects bearing on the inquiry that have not yet been touched upon.

"Appeal to the President and the comptroller of the currency for the information which was within the power of the President to grant, met with long delays that have embarrassed the work of the committee but have resulted in no belief." The statement continues:

"The banks curiously regard even the character of their assets as secret information that they are entitled to withhold from the scrutiny of this committee."

"The work delegated to the committee is far from completed. In some of its important aspects it has barely begun but if it is to be continued, this important task, in order to be thoroughly discharged, must be accomplished with far more comprehensive powers which can only be had through further legislation."

"The committee will adjourn on Feb. 25 to consider its report."

HUNTERS' LICENSES

Net the State a Considerable Sum of Money With More to Come

Charles B. Clarke, secretary of the fish and game commission, has received from the sale of resident hunter's licenses, to date, the sum of $16,593.75, which he has turned over to the state treasury.

Twenty-three towns have not yet reported to the board, and unless a settlement is effected at once the matter will be turned over to the attorney general under the law.

The police blotter this morning contained the names of four lodgers, three for drunkenness, two for adultery, two for safe keeping and two for assault with a knife.

BITTEN BY A DOG, MAY LOSE HIS HAND

As a result of a humane effort to save an angry cat from an angry dog, William Dawson, 28 years old, will probably lose his right hand. Dawson is now confined in the Portsmouth Hospital and his hand is so badly poisoned that it is hardly possible that the hand can be saved.

Dawson, an employee of the Frank Jones Brewing Company, was on his way from his home to the center of the city when he heard the loud crying of a cat. He entered a yard from which the cries appeared to come and saw a small terrier dog attacking an angora cat. The cat was "freed" upon a low box and, although fighting the terrier back as best she could, was being severely bitten.

Dawson ran into the yard and seized the dog. The angry animal fastened his teeth into Dawson's right hand and bit sharply several times before Dawson could seize the animal's throat. Dawson washed out the wounds at his home but as the pains continued he hurried to the office of Dr. Hannaford.

Blood poisoning had quickly developed. The wounds were cauterized and all preventive methods possible were brought into play but the spread of poisonous matter continued. It finally became necessary to send the young man to the hospital.

THE WEATHER

Washington, Jan. 17.—Forecast for New England—Rain Saturday; Sunday rain or snow and colder; moderate southwest and west winds becoming variable.

Local Forecast for Portsmouth and vicinity—Saturday cloudy, with occasional rain; colder Saturday night; moderate westerly winds; Sunday clearing, colder.

The ambulance was out this noon to convey a sick person from Newmarket to the Portsmouth Hospital.

NEW RULES PROMULGATED

Civil Service Requirements for Navy Employees Are Extended

On Friday instructions were received from Washington in regard to the new executive order of President Taft by which civil service requirements and protection are extended to incumbents of all artisan and supervisory positions under the jurisdiction of the navy department.

By the new regulations all civilian employees at navy yards and naval stations, with the exception of clerks, stenographers, typewriters, watchmen, messengers and messenger boys, who are already under civil service, will be chosen from lists in the order of their ratings at examinations held by the labor board at each navy yard and naval station. The old practice of appointing men to these "jobs" according to the priority of application will no longer hold.

Applicants for the positions named in the new regulations will receive blank forms, which must be filled out and returned to the labor board. The board will then make inquiries as to the applicant's character, habits, ability and efficiency and a percentage will be given each candidate, who will be placed on the eligible list according to his rating if he passes the physical examination. The latter will be necessary for all applicants and they will be graded according to the work required in the position sought.

The examinations will not include educational tests. The applicant will be required to show that he is a citizen of, or owes his allegiance to, the United States, that he has necessary knowledge and experience in the occupation or trade in which he seeks employment, and that he is of good character.

Statements of applicants must be made under oath and an applicant or eligible may be rejected for making false statements to the board. The habitual or excessive use of liquor or deleterious drugs, the conviction of crime or notoriously disgraceful conduct will be cause for dismissal.

All applicants rated at 70 per cent. or higher will be eligible for appointment. Appointments will be made for a tentative period of six months. Men now in the positions affected by the new regulations will be classified as eligible for their places if the commanding officer of the yard or station recommends such classification. This regulation will apply to men employed at the navy yards and station up to June 30, 1913, when the new regulations will go into effect.

NEW COURT SUGGESTED

For Dealing With Complaints of Civil Employees of the Government.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The creation of a new court to deal exclusively with the complaints and petitions of civil employees of the government is suggested to Congress by the National League of Government Employees, which closed its annual convention here today. Steps were also taken to bring into the organization all of the 350,000 men in the various Federal departments and chapters for four new chapters of the organization were published. The strength at present is said to be mainly in the East and its membership includes government workers in the navy yards, arsenals, proving grounds, powder stations, customs houses and postoffices.

In advocating the adoption of a special tribunal in the judicial system, George L. Cain of Lynn, Mass., president of the league, insisted that some such arbitrator, distinct from the civil service commission was necessary.

"The purpose and duties of this court," he said, in his annual report, "would be to receive complaints from civilian employees of the government and to act officially on the same in an expeditious manner according to the law and facts presented by witnesses in an opening hearing."

He would extend to the court jurisdiction over the matter of pay and promotions.

A. O. H. NOTICE

The joint installation of Division 2, A. O. H., and the Ladies' Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening, January 21. There will be a visitation by the state officers. All members are earnestly requested to be present. Per Order, F. D. O'Brien, Pres.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Fred I. Yorke will be held from the rooms of Undertaker William P. Miskell on Market street Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Interment will take place in Somersworth on Monday.

CHESSBOARD OF BALKAN WAR

It Is Turkey's Move, but She Uses Provoking Deliberation

London, Jan. 17.—The next move in the long drawn-out game of diplomacy for the settlement of the war in southeastern Europe is for Turkey to make. The collective note of the European powers drawn up by the ambassadorial conference at London was handed to the Turkish government today at Constantinople.

Since the Turks for more than a week have staked with the whole world knowledge of the purpose of the note and unofficially were given diplomatic notice of its exact contents prior to its presentation to the Ottoman government, there is no reason why their reply should not be a prompt one. Their only motive for withholding it, it is thought, would be procrastination, with their old hope uppermost that something might turn up.

The Turkish delegates in the peace conference do not know the precise intentions of their government with respect to the note, but they predict that its answer soon will be given and that it will afford no grounds for accusations that Turkey is playing for time. The expectation among diplomats here is that Turkey will concede something to the allies with a view to having the powers make efforts to bring the peace delegates together again for further negotiations. Should this be the case it then will develop whether the ultimatum of the allies is as ironclad as they profess it to be.

When Rechad Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, was asked today why the Turks were remaining in London, he replied:

"We are awaiting instructions. Last week our orders were to leave and therefore we prepared to pack our belongings. This week the order is to wait."

The meeting of the ambassadors of the foreign powers continue. A proposal has been suggested that Montenegro might cede the mountain above

Cattaro to Austria in return for Scutari and as the mountain dominates Cetinje the capital of Montenegro might be moved to Scutari, which is an important town. Cetinje is hardly more than a village.

Elbasan may be selected as the capital of Albania instead of Aylon, in deference to the wishes of Austria. Elbasan is situated in the interior and therefore could not be subjected to a naval attack.

MORE INDICTMENTS AGAINST NEW HAVEN ROAD

Boston, Jan. 17.—The United States Grand Jury reported this morning the following indictments:
New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, violation of act of Congress of Feb. 4, 1887, as amended. Alleged Concessions to Milk Firm
The act of 1887 referred to in the indictment of the railroad is that regulating commerce. The alleged violations arise from alleged concessions to the Elm Farm Milk Company to the transportation of milk from Abington and Hampton, Conn., to Bird street, Dorchester.

There are two indictments, one containing 20 counts, for transporting milk in passenger trains without making any charge, and 20 counts for giving concessions of five cents for every can so transported. The other indictment charges a failure to file with the Interstate Commerce Commission a schedule of rates, tariffs and charges for the transportation of milk between the places named.

of 5 cents for each of those cans, amounting to $252.
The dates and the number of cans shipped without charge on passenger trains between Hampton and Bird street are as follows according to the indictment: Sept. 1, 1910, 387 cans; Sept. 5, 306 cans; Oct. 31, 301 cans; Nov. 2, 235 cans; Nov. 3, 305 cans; Nov. 10, 235 cans; Dec. 3, 260 cans; Dec. 12, 290 cans; Dec. 23, 280 cans; Jan. 3, 1911, 196 cans; Jan. 9, 307 cans; Feb. 3, 312 cans.
The shipments from Abington to Bird street were: Sept. 17, 1910, 150 cans; Oct. 10, 145 cans; Nov. 11, 197 cans; Nov. 28, 165 cans; Dec. 8, 155 cans; Jan. 2, 1911, 180; Jan. 30, —32.

NO VALID BALLOT TAKEN ON FRIDAY

Concord, Jan. 17.—The name of Supreme Court Justice George H. Bingham of Manchester was mentioned for the first time today in the voting in the legislature for United States senator. Judge Bingham was named by Representative Guy H. Cutler of Jaffrey, one of the Democratic leaders of the house and a prominent member of the Democratic state committee. It was taken to indicate the way the wind would blow if Hollis is forced to withdraw in the balloting next week.

All three parties adhered to the agreement of yesterday to stay away from the session today and prevent a quorum, only 15 members of the house and two senators being present. A rumor was current last night that a plan was on foot to break the agreement and "slip something over" today and members who had not intended to come were alarmed and came. To Concord this morning but they did not stay after they saw that but a handful were present. A number from down country left before the balloting to take the noon train for home, there being no other train before mid-afternoon.

Speaker Britton presided in the house, which convened at 11.45, and there was barely business enough on hand for five minutes' work, and then recess was taken until 12. The only bill introduced was by Stevens of Landaff to publish a digest of New Hampshire court decisions. The use of Representatives' hall was granted the Woman's club of Concord for a public meeting on Wednesday evening Jan. 22, to discuss the subject of public health.

Senator Blackwood presided in the senate, the only other senator being Rogers of Pembroke. Communications with the house were exchanged and the usual formalities were gone through.

Instead of going through the entire roll of the house, however, in the voting, the members present were asked to come into the front seats and rise by counties. Then the names of those present were called and they voted. The speaker asked if there was any other member of the house present and no answer was given. He declared 17 legislators were present and no quorum, therefore the vote was not valid.

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Men.

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, spot-touching remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4724 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $2.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

Portsmouth, N. H., Saturday, January 18, 1913.

A Suggestion to Cut Out Nick Names of Base Ball Nines.

At last some one has come forward with a sensible suggestion to restore the old time interest in baseball by suggesting that the nines be known by the city they represent. A dispatch says: In a letter to Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Americans, Frank Chance, the new manager, suggests that the local baseball writers cut out the nicknames of the team. The "Peerless Leader" wants his team to be called New Yorks. Chance writes:

"Wouldn't it be a good idea to call our team the 'New Yorks' instead of the 'Highlanders,' 'Yankees,' 'Hilltops,' 'Hillmen' or 'Killies'? McGraw's men have a copyright on the nickname 'Giants,' and they deserve it, for they have accomplished big things in the National League. They always will be 'giants' in the full sense of the word. Therefore, in calling our team the 'New Yorks' we are not appropriating something that doesn't belong to us. The nicknames Highlanders, Yankees and the others are meaningless. In cities outside of New York they attract no attention. In fact, I think that this nickname business in baseball has been overdone. We are going to bring New York to the top of the American league, and will have 'New York' on our uniforms. I hope the newspapers and the baseball public will call us the 'New Yorks' in future; also that we will be worthy of the name."

The suggestion of Frank Chance is respectfully referred to the Boston critics. Outside of the "kids" one would hardly know that Boston had a nine. Why not Boston-Americans and Boston-Nationals? Cut out the silly nicknames as Manager Chance suggests.

The Function of the Bear.

In the clean-up of Wall street methods now being attempted through a congressional committee a great deal of very dirty linen has been hung out on the line. Not even the gold dust twins, the bankers and brokers, will be able to remove the spots therefrom. The element of the Wall street melee known as the bears comes in for a lot of public execration, and often deservedly. It is their function to persuade the innocent and confiding public that the securities for which they have paid good hard money are not worth anything like what they gave for them. Often they are able to convince the public of that fact, and they roll up fortunes like snowballs out of the more or less groundless fears of the element known in stock market parlance as the lambs.

At the same time let it be remembered that were it not for the bears, the American people would be in possession of the finest lot of high-cost bubbles into which hard-working people ever invested their savings.

Every town in the land has its men of the promoter type, who are always attempting to work off schemes for incorporating and capitalizing new companies. There are corner lots on the wind-swept prairie, residential suburbs in miasmatic swamps, mines consisting of a prospector's hole in the ground, factories built on paper, any one of which offers a sure road to wealth if you will only part with your good money for those handsomely engraved certificates.

A certain proportion of these schemes get past the promotion stage, and if they are big and influential enough get listed on some stock market. Every once in so often the bear makes his harvest out of these fakes, a grist of which is always ripe and ready for the killing.

It is the bear who sees the dangers and the difficulties in the way of every big enterprise, and of the commercial fabric as a whole, and he makes his profit by calling public attention to these risks. It is an ignoble office. But if every investor would perform it for himself, he can save the vast toll that now goes annually to the stock market bears, who make their annual or monthly killing in the grisly slaughter house of men's business dreams.—Mirror.

Saluting the Flag.

Saluting the flag and pledging allegiance to the United States in the public schools are more than a mere ceremony, and have a design of deeper significance than to provide a picturesque detail in opening the school. The ceremonies have, therefore, been instituted for the one purpose of awakening in these children a patriotic interest in the nation. There is nothing of the tawdry or theatrical in either. They are not intended as an empty formality. A real and pressing need exists for implanting in the minds of many children understanding of the fact that the United States is something more than a town or city or county or state in which they are domiciled. The testimony as educators and informed observers is that this Wives of Three Leading Men In Politics Of New York State, Snapped at Albany.

Among the notable figures in Albany at the formal casting of New York's electoral vote several days ago were the wives of three men who led in the politics of the state. They were Mrs. Martin H. Glynn, wife of the lieutenant governor; Mrs. Charles F. Murphy, wife of the Tammany Hall leader, and Mrs. William Sulzer, whose husband is governor. The above picture presents the women from left to right in the order named. It was a matter of passing notice that Governor Sulzer and Mr. Murphy conferred in the friendliest manner possible when they met unobtrusively and that the two, with Mr. Glynn, took refreshments at "The People's House," as Mr. Sulzer calls the executive mansion. The wives of the three men mingled likewise in a spirit of pleasant good fellowship.

purpose has been accomplished, and it is unfortunate that so necessary and laudable a work of the public school system should be brought even to occasional derision through lack of fact or mere stubbornness.—Haverhill Gazette.

NEWS ABOUT GOOD ROADS.

The conversion of New Jersey, a northern state, to the plan of prison labor will be of much interest to all good road promoters of the country. For several years none of the northern states have been employing convict labor almost exclusively on road work, but in many of the northern states the plan has met with more or less opposition.

Col. Edwin A. Blewett, state road commissioner of New Jersey, after one season's trial of convict labor on the roads of his state, is enthusiastic in endorsing the policy generally. In a communication to the A. A. National Good Roads Board the commissioner writes:

"The experiment of convict labor on state roads, which was proved to be a success in one week, is only the beginning of good road building beyond what we already have and at a price which will spread out the money of the state beyond its present confines."

In describing the work in New Jersey, Colonel Stevens says: "I gave orders to the men in charge that he was to give me a 'swagger' job there. In other words, he was to build the best section of road ever constructed in New Jersey. If after a rain there was as much as a teaspoon of water remaining on any spot, the road was to be torn up instantly and relaid by these men. This is my school, and I believe that in the future men trained in prison short term men, if I cannot get others who have nothing else to do when they are turned out into private life again, can be taught the highest class of road building. They can be made to do the highest class of work."

"I do not expect a bank president to become a road builder, but there is excellent material in prison which can be trained in this way, and I expect to manufacture out of this labor a corps of men who will continue the work on choice when they have served their time. With the training I will give them they will be a valuable asset to New Jersey roads, and that is why I wanted nothing but the highest class of work done by this experimental class of men. They will get, if I can get it for them, and the prison authorities seem to be willing to cooperate in every way to make this work successful—conviction for good behavior, and excellent work beyond that obtainable inside the walls."

In Colorado, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Washington, Utah, California, Wyoming and several other of the northern states, experiments have been made, and almost without exception satisfactory results have followed. The men have appreciated the privilege of living in the open air, their health and morale have improved, their work has been good, and very little trouble has been given.

Men in Sing Sing prison, New York, are no longer required to wear stripes and have their heads shaved, and everywhere the tendency is toward doing everything possible to make the convict a better man when he leaves prison than when he entered.

The employment of convict labor on the roads is one of the many related topics to be discussed at the second Federal Aid Good Roads convention to be held under the auspices of the American Automobile Association in Washington, March 6 and 7. In establishing the National policy for future road building, the use of convict labor is one of the questions that is bound to come in, much information on this subject has already been placed before the joint committee of congress, which is soon to report on the whole subject of Federal aid.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Friday was pay day for the men employed by the Boston & Maine railroad in this city.

The Rockingham county jail in this city this morning contained twenty six prisoners, but this number was augmented shortly before noon by five more offenders who had been tried in the local police court.

Charles H. Quinn went to Boston this afternoon to endeavor to locate a former business man, who is wanted here for the passing of several worthless checks.

RYE.

The officers of Rye Grange are to be installed by Edward H. Adams, overseer of New Hampshire State Grange, at their next meeting on Friday evening, Jan. 24.

There will be a turkey supper given and it is hoped every member will be present. There will be quite a class of new members coming in soon.

The Christian Church Ladies' Union will give their winter festival on Wednesday and Thursday evening, Jan. 29 and 30.

The J. O. U. A. M. will initiate a small class at their next meeting, Jan. 27, Monday evening.

There will be an old fashioned dance given in the town hall on Wednesday evening, Jan. 22. Music by Hoyt's orchestra. Public invited.

NEW CASTLE

It is extremely unlikely that any one in the island town would have the hardihood to find fault with the perfectly peerless winter weather. It would seem possible to believe that the Gulf stream was headed this way.

Miss Myra Bickford has returned from a month's sojourn in Toronto, Canada.

Granville Amazeen is slowly convalescing from his recent serious illness.

Mrs. Clara Hall still remains very ill and has been removed to the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Thomas D. Griener.

The King's Daughters are actively preparing to produce a screamingly funny rural drama.

Corporal Lewis and bride are comfortably located in the Trefethen cotage.

Second Methodist Episcopal Church, Allison J. Hayes, M. A., Minister.
10.30—Sunday school in the vestry. Men's class meets in the church auditorium at this hour. Lecture by the minister on "Did God Make Man or Did Man Make God." This is a class for all men. Every man has a welcome to come.

11.00—Preaching, "Nathaniel, the Guileless Man."
6.00—Vespers, "The First Coward in the World." This is the companion sermon to last Sunday. This is directed especially for the men and their place in the moral reformation of home, church and society. Therefore, the men are especially invited to this service.

6.00—Epworth League meets in the vestry.
Prayer meeting meets on Tuesday evening in the vestry at 7.30. At the close of this meeting the Sunday school board meets. All the officers and teachers are requested to be present. Important matters are up for consideration.

The Phœbes held their regular meeting last evening, talks on travel being the feature. Post card views with descriptions by Mrs. Joseph Hobbs and Rev. Mr. Natino, who have visited the places, were much enjoyed, and Mrs. G. H. D. L'Amoureux gave very interesting readings on Rome. It was decided to hold a supper on the evening of Feb. 12.

Mrs. Abby Rice is reported as being very poorly at her home at Kittery Depot.

A very unique program will be Jan. 30, at 8 o'clock, in the vestry of the Second Methodist church. It will given on the evening of Thursday, consist of Jean Ingelow's poem, "Songs of Seven," presented in recitation, music and tableaux. This will be a rare opportunity to hear one of the most excellent entertainments ever given in this town from the standpoint of good talent and well arranged staging.

Mrs. Walter McDonald and daughter, Martha, and mother Mrs. Martha Wyman, are passing the week end in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hatch have moved into the tenement owned by W. T. Spinney, over the office of J. C.

PROPOSALS.

Sealed proposals for furnishing hay for the street department, City of Portsmouth, N. H., for the year of 1913, will be received at the office of the Board of Public Works, until Jan. 22, 1913, at 8 p.m., when bids will be publicly opened.

Specifications may be obtained at the office of the Board of Public Works. Board of Public Works, J. W. MARRETT, Supl.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Headache, Bilious Stomach or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never ripe or sick.

Ats on Government street. The Riverside Reading Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Fred Macy on Jan. 31.

Mrs. Mary Bridges of Otis avenue adly scolded her foot while at her outwork on Friday.

Preparations are being made for the annual reunion of the Kittery Alumni association, a committee meeting having been held with Mrs. Ida Otis on Thursday evening. The reunion will be held as usual on the evening of Wednesday's birthday.

George Wakefield of Vermont is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Harold Leyden and little daughter returned on Friday from a two days' visit to her parents in Malap, Mass.

Mrs. J. H. Hubbard of the Interco is still restricted to the house by illness.

Clarence L. Moody has been working in French's store afternoons during the past week.

The Herald Hears

That the weather man gave the spirit a bath on Friday.

That there was not the least doubt at that it was badly needed.

That Congressman-elect Reed says that it won't be any fault of his if the Portsmouth navy yard doesn't get its share of work.

That a member of the Kildare Athletic Club who knows a thing or two about foot movements has issued a challenge to all comers for buck and lug and cross-road dancing.

That the committee on fire department promises to be good to the aid of engineers.

That the fire department certainly needs all it can get at present.

That few people realize it, but this weather suits the local coal dealer.

That a cold spell of a week or so could prove it beyond any doubt.

That the passenger list of the water wagon is not so strong.

That there has been several desertions and the deserters claimed they were pushed off the cold water harlot.

That the expense of snow shoveling on the railroads for 1913 cannot be very heavy unless the weather man gets busy right away.

That Ezra Towle says he can pick a mess of dandelions in his garden most any day.

That Ezra always had a little on the east on such ends.

That the North End has been very orderly of late.

That the slashing affair on Friday night was the first mixup for many months.

KITTERY POINT

What Is Happening In the Harbor Town.

Mrs. Eunice Safford has gone to Portsmouth to pass the remainder of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. George Trafton.

George Gunnison has resumed his duties at the navy yard, after several weeks' confinement as the result of an accident in the cooper shop.

The Fire Company will hold a ladies' whist party at Freeman's hall next Thursday evening.

Lester Raynes has taken a position as fireman on the tug Seylla.

Mrs. J. Fred Dorr is confined to her home by illness.

The houses of Charles Clark and Granyille Berry are being wired for electric lights.

Mrs. Ray Fuller passed Thursday with relatives in North Kittery.

Fred Robinson of Elliot has discontinued his bakery route through this town on account of ill health.

The report that T. E. Hirst had sold his motor boat to H. G. Gates is unfounded.

Misses Alice N. Patch and Alice M. Rich are visiting relatives in Dover, N. H.

Arrived, schooner Ella F. Crowell, Boston for Rockland, Me.; schooner Robert Pettis, Boston for Portland.

Returned, schooner Mildred May, Wainset, Me., for Gloucester, Mass.

George "Blissell" of this place was led with one other competitor at the recent Dover Poultry Show for the best bird of any variety placed on exhibition.

The rough sea on Friday prevented any further attempt at raising the untened scow at the Eastern Dredging Co. The dredger Proport and the tug Seylla will however remain here until the feat is accomplished, or proved to be impracticable. In the latter case the scow will have to be destroyed by dynamite, as she is a menace to navigation.

Peter Dolan has returned from Fallwell, where he was called by the illness of relatives.

Frank Buckings of Biddeford was a visitor in town on Friday.

T. E. Hirst is soon to move his family to Boston.

Mrs. Annie Ruff of Elliot visited relatives in town on Friday.

Edward Jameson has purchased a motor boat.

The house of Sabrina Phillips will next week be occupied by Peter Dolan who is to move his family from Fallwell, Me.

Chester Emery was among those receiving prizes at the late Dover Poultry show.

Mrs. Susan Cooper has taken a position in Portsmouth.

Mrs. Otis Silsbee of East Elliot was he guest of relatives on Thursday.

Loss of rubbers was a common complaint in our streets on Friday.

The topic at the Free Baptist church for Sunday, Jan. 19, at 2 p. m., will be "Nursing the Child," Matt. 21. Sunday evening at 7, topic, Human Life Solved as a Problem in Algebra." In the praise service the history of the song, "The Little Brown Church in the Vale" will be given.

At the First Christian church on Sunday, Rev. Mrs. Coffin will take for text from Exodus 8-10, "And He said, 'Tomorrow.' Evening subject, "Sacrifice."

The Christian Endeavor Society of the P. C. church will have a supper on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Libby.

1227 BARRELS

Of Ashes and 428 of Paper Collected in Four Days.

The report of the inspectors of the public works who have been working in conjunction with the collecting carts of the street division, shows that the ashes collected for Jan. 14, 15, 16 and 17 amounted to 1227 barrels. They also picked up 428 barrels of paper. The feature of this inspection was the fact that at eleven places decayed fruit and swill were found in the barrels. It is the opinion of people who heartily appreciate this work of the street department that the thing has been exceedingly abused by the great amount of paper put out for the carts and above all, by the dumping of putrid fruit and other waste that does not belong to the street department to gather up.

OBITUARY

George Adams, a well known resident of the South End, died at his home on Marcy street early this morning after a long illness, aged 56 years. He was born in Rye, the son of Oliver and Mary (Foss) Adams, but had made his home in this city the greater portion of his life. For several years he was a member of the police force, but of late years had worked on the navy yard. He married Miss Marcellena Adams, who survives him together with two sons and a daughter, also several brothers.

ITALIAN SLASHED WITH RAZOR HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Gasparo Rento Badly Cut by Tony Blas in Street Fight at North End.

In a fight between two Italians at No. 6 Russell street on Friday evening Gasparo Rento, a laborer, aged 47 years, was badly cut and came near losing his life. He is at the hospital. His assailant, Tony Blas, is at the police station, with a slight wound in his neck.

The trouble as far as the police can learn, started on Russell street, and both men fought with knives. Rento was unable to defend himself against his more nimble assailant and he received a cut on his neck, which came within a hair of severing the windpipe.

The police were telephoned and officers Kelley and Schreier were sent down, and they found Blas walking down Russell street. They turned him back to No. 6 Russell street where the other Italian was found. Both were taken to the police station.

Rento when searched had a jack knife covered with blood, but the other man's weapon could not be found. The cuts on Rento's neck, though they were inflicted with a razor, or some very sharp instrument, were not deep.

Blas was assigned before Judge Thomas H. Storer in police court of the charge of assault with intent to kill and slay. He pleaded not guilty. His solicitor Peyer asked for a continuance until January 26th, in order that Rento could be present. The continuance was granted and Blas was committed to jail without bail.

A FAMILY OF EXTRA HEARTS

Easton, Penn., Jan. 17.—A family to which the mother and three children are each provided with two hearts—a case said to be unequaled in medical science—has been discovered here, according to Dr. James Mergens. He has called several fellow physicians in to examine the family and they have verified his statements.

In each case both of the hearts were performing their full functions, one in each side of the chest. The mother and children have always been normally healthy.

The woman is Mrs. Harlan Perkins and her children are Anna, Allen and Doris, aged 13, 11 and 4 years respectively.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Portsmouth Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed, to be entirely free from annoying dangerous, urinary disorders, is enough to make and kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Portsmouth readers.

Mrs. John M. Smart, 122 Gates St., Portsmouth, N. H., says: "Eight or nine years ago I began to suffer from pains in the small of my back which at times changed to a dull grinding ache and if I overexerted my suffering was intensified. I felt tired nearly all the time and had but little energy. Having reason to believe that my kidneys were disordered, I began trying various remedies but without success, until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Philbrick's Pharmacy. The contents of two boxes improved my condition in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn, Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's and take no other.

STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS CLASH

Washington, Jan. 17.—The fight between Federal and State pure food officials over the right of the Corn Products Company of New York to label one of its products as a corn syrup rather than "glucose" was renewed today before the Supreme Court. The suit in issue was the constitutionality of the Wisconsin pure food law, under which two grocers in that state were fined for selling the company's "corn syrup" not labeled in accordance with the state law. The state officials claimed that as the product contained more than 75 per cent glucose it should have been labeled "glucose" flavored with refined syrup.

Attorneys on behalf of the grocers contend that the state law is in conflict with the Federal pure food law and therefore unconstitutional. They point to the fact that by virtue of the Federal pure food law the "three secretaries" Wilson of the Agricultural Department; Cortelyou, of the Treasury Department; and Strauss, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, held the product was not mislabeled. It labeled "corn syrup with cane flavor." In reply, attorneys for the state argue that the three secretaries had no authority to make such a ruling. In the brief, Secretary Wilson is criticized for allowing the attorneys for the Corn Products Company to obtain copies of briefs bearing on the case, while denying the state officials that privilege until Representative Nelson interceded.

INSTALLED OFFICERS

Charles C. Avery, D. D. G. M. and Inff of Garrison Lodge, No. 6, A. O. L. W. of Dover installed the officers of Sugamore Lodge, No. 11 and the following officers were inducted into office:

P. M. W. Frank Pike, Foreman, A. P. Wendell, Overseer, A. F. Vetterbee, Recorder, Chas. E. Dodge, Treasurer, E. Clinton Frye, Guide, F. P. Downing, M. W. E. E. Bryant, O. W. G. T. Dow, Rep. to Grand Lodge, W. N. Hodgson.

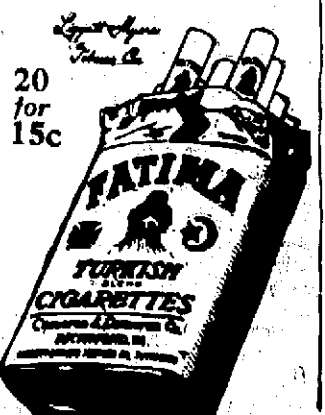

After the installation refreshments were enjoyed by all.

ALPHA COUNCIL CLAIMS BEST DEGREE TEAM IN COUNTRY

MEMBERS OF DEGREE TEAM

Middle Row, Supports, Paul Grover, Arthur L. McCaffery, George Neill, Donald Spearin and Fred Harrison (Plants).

Bottom row, Vice regent William Micoth, Gracie Perley Hersey, Regent Edward P. Churchill, Guide and degree master Capt. Frederic T. Harri man, Past regent Fred Helser, Warder Arthur Hersey and Chaplain Sherman O. Caswell.

Alpha Council No. 83, Royal Arcanum, of this city, which is the largest council in the state, with a membership of between three and four hundred bonists of one of the finest drilled degree teams in the country.

Two Supreme Regents of the order, when on visits to this city, have stated that without any exception the degree team, does the work better than any council they had ever visited and in the course of their visit they travel pretty near all over the country.

The degree team was formerly composed of 13 men and under the careful drilling of captain F. T. Harriman the degree master, they became very proficient, so much so that on the occasion of the visit of Supreme Regent Cloyds H. Bowen, they did such good work, that he presented them with the No. 1 prize ritual, which had been given to but two other councils in the country. They worked this degree at the big class meeting, some months after when a class of over a hundred was worked.

Last October the degree team was increased to 19 members and a complete costly new regalia was secured.

This team worked for the first time on charter day, Nov. 4, and made a decided hit.

Nov. 18 they conferred the degree on a class of 11 at Exeter and Dec. 26 they went to Concord and worked the degree on a class of 5. In addition invitations have been received from Portland and other cities to work but they have been unable to make these trips.

Captain F. T. Harriman, who is the degree master, is entitled to the credit for the work of the team, for he has been untiring in his drilling of the company.

IN MEMORIAM

In the death of Mrs. Georgine Webster Moses, there passes out from our midst the last of the children of the late Davidson and Julia Dearborn Webster who will be remembered as among the highly respected residents of our city, (at Christian Shore) three score and more years ago. The writer has pleasant memories of the Webster home, of the sterling qualities of the above named citizens of long ago, and their happy faculty of imparting the joy of life and pleasure giving, that made their home a pleasant place to visit.

The three daughters, Annie, Helen and Georgine, and the two sons, Henry and Frank D. made up the family circle, which, as one associated in it as a friend, (as was the writer), furnished entertainment of the most hospitable nature, and as the music of long bygone years is still a lingering melody.

Best known of the children to the people of this day and generation, was Mrs. Georgine Webster Moses, and to her, as the last of this happy family we pay this tribute—A woman who had the message of kindness and cheer to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. A pleasant expression to all abroad in her intercourse with the world, and a most devoted one in her home, where the sanctity of home life was evinced in her every application to duty. This sincerity of purpose helpfulness and faithful companionship, now withdrawn by death, will continue to be, in the surviving children and grandchildren a priceless inheritance, and abiding memory. "Surely somewhere there is peace Where the tides of being cease."

AN ORDEAL OF FIVE BANQUETS

Washington, Jan. 17.—Prepared to face an ordeal of five banquets in two days, President Taft starts out today on a jaunt to Philadelphia, New York and New Haven that will keep him from the White House until next Tuesday.

In Philadelphia tonight he will attend the dinners of the Clover Club, the Paor Richard Club and the Pennsylvania Society, following that up tomorrow in New York by attending the dinner given to Ex-Pres. White of Cornell University, later dropping in on the banquet of the Ohio Society.

On Sunday the President will look in on the general conference of the UNAL BIRTH, which is in session in New York. He then will proceed to New Haven to attend a meeting of the Yale Corporation of which he is a trustee.

DELAWARE LEADS IN GUN PRACTICE

The battleship Delaware, with a score of 46,026 won the highest mark in the elementary gun practice last autumn among vessels of the battleship class, and with a score of 75,000 was one of the three battleships which attained the highest mark in torpedo practice, according to an announcement made yesterday at the navy department. Making an equal score with the Delaware in torpedo practice were the Florida and the Utah. In the elementary gun practice, the standing of the first ten battleships and the scores attained was as follows: Delaware, 46,026; Florida, 45,184; Idaho, 42,555; Michigan, 38,051; Connecticut, 34,811; Louisiana, 34,667; Missouri, 33,875; New Hampshire, 33,706; Utah, 30,907; Rhode Island, 30,333.

The battleship Georgia with a score of 12,019 finished 25th, at the foot of the list.

In torpedo practice, after the Delaware, Florida and Utah, each of whom attained 75,000, the following battleships made the following scores, Idaho, 50,000; Connecticut, 48,667; Louisiana, 37,500; Rhode Island, 28,100; Kansas, 20,833; New Jersey, 18,667; Nebraska, 9,167.

IT IS A STROKE OF ECONOMY

To equip your furnace with a "furnace connection." The heat used in heating your rooms may also be utilized in furnishing you with hot water. The cost of installing a furnace connection is nominal—the plan of operation perfect.

OUR PLAN

We run a pipe over the fire pot of the furnace—from furnace to radiator; in the kitchen from radiator to boiler, giving you heat and hot water and you have but one fire to watch—the furnace.

This gives you the advantage of using your gas range throughout the year, and saves you the labor of carrying coal and emptying ashes.

ROOT NOT LOCATED

Warrant Issued for His Arrest on Account of Alleged Fraudulent Transaction.

A warrant was issued on Friday for the arrest of John L. Root, who the police have been unable to find after a hunt in Boston and other places. Root is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses in the sale of his general furnishing business to Frank Milan. The transfer sale shows that the price named was $8,800. Milan paid $3,600 in cash and notes were given for $5,200.

Creditors, among whom are Hiram Thompson, Dr. G. L. Pender, and one of the banks, have attached the goods for the amount necessary to cover their claims and Deputy Sheriff W. D. Shaw has been located at the store as keeper. Today Attorney John H. Bartlett, representing some of the creditors, petitioned Judge Pike of the superior court for a receivership in which Frank Milan is named.

Under the existing law the creditors should have had a five days' notice of such a transfer sale, but as this was not carried out, thus the legal mixup. Deputy Marshal Ducker, who has been in Boston since yesterday morning, assisted by the Boston officers, learned that the much wanted man registered by the name of L. J. Root, revealing his initials. Mail had also been received at that hotel for Root, but on telephone instructions from this city had been sent back to Portsmouth.

The police believe that he went from Boston to New York but could get no line on him at the several steamship offices at Boston or at the railroad stations.

GOOD SUGGESTIONS.

By the Board of Engineers on Fires and Fire Alarms.

The Board of Engineers of the fire department have a few suggestions for the good of the public relative to fire alarms and fires, which should be of special benefit to the people, which are the following:

Impress thoroughly on your mind the location of the nearest fire alarm box and the best and quickest way to get at it.

Call the chemical engine by telephone for small fires.

Make yourself familiar with the telephone number of the chemical, which is 525.

When it is necessary to give a general alarm do so by breaking the glass in the small box attached to the pole or alarm box, get the key, open the large box, pull back down once and let go.

Always stand by the box to direct the firemen to the place of the fire.

Never pull in a box for a fire seen at a distance.

Remember that the fire alarm is no plaything and that it costs considerable money to pay nothing of the danger to firemen and horses responding.

All drivers of vehicles, bicycle riders and pedestrians should aid the firemen by making room for the apparatus as quick as possible to avoid accidents and delays.

Do not feed the fire with a draft by opening doors and windows before the arrival of the department.

Excelsior and inflammable matter in and about buildings and yards should be properly taken care of to avoid fire and expense to the city. The board will appreciate cooperation on the part of the residents in the above suggestions.

WILLIAM F. WOODS, Chief Engineer,
HERBERT C. WALLACE,
ROBERT W. ARKHAM,
Assistant Engineers.

POLICE COURT

Tracy Marx, charged with attempt to kill Gaspare Rento, was arraigned and held for a week for further hearing without bail.

WILL GO TO WASHINGTON.

The members of the graduating class of the Portsmouth high school are planning for a trip to Washington in the spring. The party will be accompanied by Principal and Mrs. J. Wilson Hobbs.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The Man About Town in the Boston Post says:

"The public usually thinks of Charles S. Mellen as a railroad executive whose only interests in life are traffic and increasing his transportation holdings. As a matter of fact his real fads are music, books and flowers. At his $100,000 home in New Haven and his $150,000 farm in Stockbridge he has collected a library that is one of the best private collections in the country. He spends many of his leisure moments figuring out how he can find room for new flower beds and grow horticultural rarities that refuse to thrive in our harsh New England climate. Both of his residences are filled with musical instruments that range from Jewharps to grand pianos. Mr. Mellen can play well on all of them."

Those who visit Boston will find a rare treat in store for them if they take time to see George Arliss in "Drs. Arliss" at the Plymouth Theatre, which completes a four months' run and closes next week. "The Woman" at the Park, "The Garden of Allah" at the Boston, "The Follies" at the Colonial, where Manager T. B. Latham is dealing out the snappiest kind of amusement, will give you all a fine treat.

Stranger things have happened and it would not surprise those in a position to know to see the United States senatorship come to Portsmouth. It is a settled fact that the leaders now in the field cannot win and a compromise candidate must be taken. Portsmouth would benefit more than any other section if she could win.

The democrats in the legislature have a plan to change all the commissions and it looks at this time as though they would be successful. They are hungry for office and quite a number of republicans appear to be willing to help them. There is a plan on foot to change the public service commission so that Governor Felker can appoint a new board.

WANT THE RELIC.

Veteran Firemen After a Memento of the Old Maine.

The veteran firemen are to have a bathtub, not that they need such a thing for cold water plunges, but as a souvenir. It is the bathtub used by Admiral Sigbee when in command of the old battleship Maine that sank by explosion in Havana harbor.

The rooms of the Franklin Pierce Association are now adorned with relics of the old days of fire fighting, but the boys want a variety and are to collect souvenirs of something besides hooks, red shirts, buckets, old hats and other antique stuff used in the days when they ran with the machine and risked life and limb to conquer the flames. This bathtub was sent to the city of Mahan, Ohio, on application of the city officials, but on receiving it they changed their minds and obtained a ten-inch shell instead. The navy department does not want to pay the freight back to Washington on the tub, and is willing to turn it over to any town or association authorized to receive such a relic under the act of Congress which will pay the freight.

Now the veterans are out for the memento of the Maine and it allowed to add it to their valuable collection by an act of Congress will gladly pay the freight from the Buckeye state to the city by the sea. The matter is already in the hands of admirers of the veterans in the halls of congress and nothing will be left undone to land the relic of the Maine within the curio-closet enclosure of their home of real on Maplewood avenue.
